Liberty Free Methodist to Host The Mission Society Conference

Global Outreach Weekend Focuses on Local Church's Role in World Missions

LIBERTY, N.Y. — The Mission Society, which sends Christian missionaries worldwide on ministry assignments, will present a Global Outreach Weekend to the members of Liberty Free Methodist Church, beginning at 7 p.m. Dec. 2, and continuing through noon Dec. 4.

"Jesus' last message to his disciples was that they be his witnesses to the ends of the earth," said Roger Wright, Midwest regional director for church ministry of The Mission Society. "To achieve this mandate, Jesus followers must extend the love of Christ into their neighborhoods as well as abroad. Not only is this mobilization essential for the advancement of the gospel, but also it's vital to the spiritual well-being of the local church."

Wright, a missions mobilizer, will conduct the Global Outreach Weekend. Wright is passionate about training church pastors and leaders to more effectively fulfill the Great Commission. He teaches and mentors them to broaden their vision to reach individuals with the love of Christ.

The Global Outreach Weekend is designed to help Christians understand the biblical basis of worldwide missions and challenge them to become more involved in local and international outreach. It includes a six-hour seminar and ministry to the entire congregation through Sunday worship and adult Sunday school classes.

Liberty Free Methodist Church (<http://www.libertyfreemethodist.org>) is located at 2535 West State Route 52.

Founded in 1984 in the Wesleyan tradition, The Mission Society (www.themissionsociety.org) exists to mobilize and deploy the body of Christ globally to join Jesus in His mission, especially among the least-reached peoples. To that end, The Mission Society recruits, trains and sends Christian missionaries to minister around the world. Its church ministry department provides seminars, workshops and mentoring for congregations in the United States and abroad, helping equip churches for outreach in their communities and worldwide. Its vision is for the Kingdom of God to advance among all peoples, bringing about redemption and reconciliation through Jesus Christ. At present, The Mission Society has more than 200 missionaries in 37 countries.
