

Steve Wilson

Senior Director of International Mobilization

EDUCATION

- B.A. in Biology from Asbury University
- M.A. in Global Leadership from Fuller Theological Seminary

EXPERTISE

While living in Mexico, Steve and his family focused their work on community development, discipleship, and church planting in one of the poor, urban neighborhoods of Monterrey. He also worked in mission strategy development with the Methodist Church of Mexico.

ROLE AT TMS GLOBAL

Steve serves at TMS Global to mobilize churches to meet social and spiritual needs in their neighborhoods and in the nations. As senior director of international mobilization, Steve works together with local leaders in emerging cities around the globe to mobilize the body of Christ to join Jesus in His mission.

BACKGROUND

Prior to working with TMS Global, Steve served as a pastor and student minister in churches in Georgia.

PERSONAL

Steve and his wife, Heather, have three boys and one girl. In his spare time, if there is such a thing with four children, he enjoys good food and live music with his wife, children, and friends. Occasionally, you can find him camping, kayaking, rock climbing, woodworking, or playing soccer.
