ROLE AT TMS GLOBAL

Romal Tune serves as vice president of strategic partnerships. In this role, Romal helps guide TMS Global to becoming a fully diverse and inclusive organization, whose mission force, staff, and board reflect the overall diversity of the kingdom of God. He helps the organization identify and address cultural and institutional roadblocks to diversity and inclusion, as well as builds strategic partnerships in communities of color in the US and around the world.

BACKGROUND

Romal is well known as a speaker, author, and strategic consultant with extensive experience in driving nonprofit initiatives, propelling advocacy programs that work, and delivering communications that break through boundaries. His platform and cross-sector relationships have positioned him as a global professional development, diversity, and inclusion advisor. With every opportunity he has to impact decision-makers or crowds around the world, Romal is a cultivator of purpose and passion that equips teams to maximize performance and allow God to redeem their stories. As a military veteran who served during Gulf War Desert Storm, moving individuals from setbacks to success as leaders is something he knows full well. His consulting company, Tune & Associates, has generated more than five million dollars for impact investing and ministry in the US and abroad.

As a social entrepreneur, Romal created “Student SWAG/Student With A Goal,” a non-profit that creates access to scholarships, cultural exchanges, and career opportunities for STEM students.

PUBLICATIONS

Romal is the author of God's Graffiti: Inspiring Stories for Teens, which received an NAACP Image Award nomination for outstanding literary work. He is a frequent blogger on matters of faith for The Huffington Post, as well as a contributor blogger on education and politics.

PERSONAL

Romal grew up in the Bay Area of Northern California, is a US Army veteran, and, most importantly, he is the proud father of two amazing teenagers, Aman and Jordan.
